

KS3 Reading Recommendation

The Lottie Brooks series by Katie Kirby

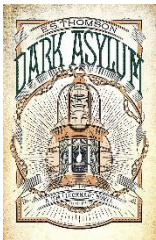

These hilarious books follow Lottie and her first year at high school, complete with friendship fails, annoying mean girls and mega-crush Daniel. Great for fans of the Wimpy Kid and Jacqueline Wilson.

KS4 Reading Recommendation

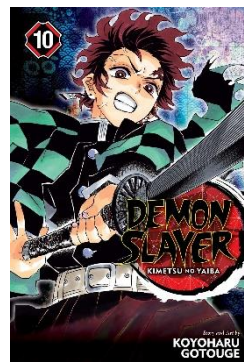

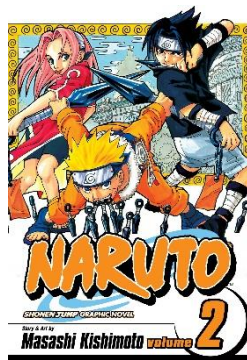

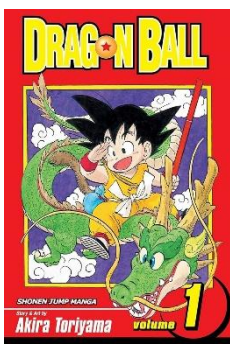

Dark Asylum by E S Thomson

Set in 1851, this chilling mystery takes the reader on a journey through the dark corners of Victorian London. Who has murdered Dr Rutherford, principal physician at Angel Meadow Insane Asylum, and what dangerous secrets are being kept? Highly recommended for GCSE History students, as it is bursting with information about the Victorian health care system.

New to the LRC – three fantastic manga series

Love Manga? Why not try Demonslayer, Naruto or DragonBall? These exciting series are super-popular in the LRC right now, with loads of students learning the skill of reading from the back of the book to the front, in Japanese style!

Inspiring Listening

Want to learn by listening? Try The Infinite Monkey Cage, a Science podcast with a difference! The legend that is Professor Brian Cox (plus some hilarious guests) explores an intriguing and surprising Science topic each episode. Available from BBC Sounds and Spotify.
